Steve and Harriet Davis Receive 2008 Community Philanthropy Award

Bainbridge Island, WA. The Bainbridge Community Foundation is pleased to announce that Steve and Harriet Davis are the recipients of the 2008 Community Philanthropy Award, an annual award that recognizes leaders in philanthropy on Bainbridge Island.

The Davises have been actively involved with a wide range of non-profit organizations in the community since the 1960's, devoting time and leadership as volunteers, donors, board members, and fundraisers. "Nearly every islander's life has been touched by the Davises' generosity through the couple's work with nonprofits that serve island residents," says Sandy Schubach, one of BCF's Trustees. "The list of Bainbridge organizations that have benefited from their time, energy and leadership includes Bainbridge Arts & Crafts, the Health, Housing & Human Services Council, Helpline House, One Call For All, Bainbridge Island Chinese Connection, schools, Bloedel Reserve, IslandWood, KiDiMu, Diversion Board, Children's Hospital Bargain Boutique, and of course the Bainbridge Community Foundation."

Ralph Munro presented the award to Steve and Harriet Davis at the Bainbridge Community Foundation's Philanthropy Celebration and Awards Ceremony held at IslandWood. "They have set the standard from which all the rest of us will be measured," said Ralph during the ceremony. A standing ovation was given in appreciation of the Davises community contributions.
